Foundations of the Christian Faith Volume III: Awakening to God By James Montgomery Boice

James Boice had written a readable overview of basic theology. In this volume he treats with and clarifies the hotly discussed but often misunderstood work of the Holy Spirit. Focusing upon God's activity in salvation, Boice examines faith, repentance, justification, assurance, adoption and sanctification. He also explores the role of the Spirit in everyday Christian life and ends this volume with two chapters on the controversial subjects of foreknowledge, call, predestination and perseverance.
