An Eye For An Eye Makes The Whole World Blind: Poets on 9/11 From Brand: Regent Pr

"An Eye For An Eye Makes the Whole World Blind" features poems by over 100 poets from all over America, including a former Poet Laureate of the United States. This important book creates an alternative poetic response to the din of collective madness that has characterized our national dialogue since 9/11/2001. Many of the poets have projected themselves into the minds and the bodies of the victims of 9/11, and the firemen and policemen who were searching the wreckage of the buildings and even the hijackers. The poets express deep emotions and profound thoughts with the severe attention to detail that makes poems revelatory. Upon reading these poems written by so many diverse poets one sees a deepening of the perception, or renewed seriousness about the human predicament and about the necessity to evolve into our full humanity. We hope the poems will help readers feel more deeply, think about our future, and ultimately act to achieve a more peaceful and just world.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Editor Allen Cohen lives in a basement apartment in Oakland, CA where he receives improbable impulses to save the world and celebrate life. He is the author of two books of poetry and the editory of the "San Francisco Oracle Facsimile Edition" and author of the CD ROM "History of the haight Ashbury" and going further back in the time machine one of the founders and editors of the original "San Francisco Oracle" and one of the originators of the Human Be-In.

Editor Clive Matson writes from the itch in his body, which is old hat, says his how-to-write text "Let The Crazy Child Write!" (New World Library, 1998), to the delight of writing workshops. "Squish Boots", his seventh book of poems, was placed in the coffin of his mentor, John Wieners. "Delightful and penetrating at the same time, these poems are a revelation," comments Susan Griffin. John hasn't been heard from.
