Editorial Review

About the Author

Jeff Smedstad was originally drawn to the bold, deeply flavorful cooking of southern and interior Mexico. Over time his cuisine has become uniquely his own, constantly evolving through experiment and intuition, incorporating influences ranging from local foraged and organically grown foods to memories of his grandmothers kitchen. Jeff's culinary adventures began while cooking in the Coast Guard, after which he studied at the Scottsdale Culinary Institute then on to study in Oaxaca. For decades he has traveled the back roads, shopped the markets, tasted local fare from upscale to street side, and come to know the people of Mexico. Jeff's passionate, thoughtful and environmentally responsible cooking has been featured on television, in the New York Times, the Boston Globe, the Toronto Star and many other publications. The Elote Cafe Cookbook has been enjoyed by thousands since 2009. In 2017 Jeff was nominated for Best Chef Southwest by the James Beard Foundation.
