Editorial Review

Review

Cardillo moves the reader along a buffet table of delectable options for building a life-long, satisfying, and dynamic career in nursing. A feast for all nurses, a banquet for nurses with disabilities. I savored every page!

Founder and President of ExceptionalNurse.com --Donna Carol Maheady, ARNP, EdD

Adjunct Assistant Professor

Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing at Florida Atlantic University

Donna's book is filled with easy-to-read, practical tips about how to manage your career. In addition to identifying specific strategies in each chapter, she addresses common challenges with strategies for everyday career management and skills needed to make a career move. This book is a vital resource for all nurses. --

Barbara A. Brunt, RN-BC, MA, MN, Director of Nursing Education and Staff Development, Summa Health System, Akron, OH, President, National Nursing Staff Development Association

Nursing is a wonderful profession with abundant opportunities for varied roles, specialties, areas of focus, and learning throughout a nurse's career. In her new book, Donna Cardillo offers an excellent resource for any nurse, with practical advice and strategies on how to grow and develop as a nurse as well as ideas on how to move into new and different positions. Her easy writing style, supported with real life examples, provides thought-provoking reading and identifies ways for nurses to enhance their satisfaction, influence, and opportunities. This book also includes important information to assist nurses who are contemplating changes at various stages of their careers. --Judy Shorr, RN, MS, CHCR, President, National Association for Health Care Recruitment, Recruiter, Children's Hospital & Regional Medical Center, Seattle, WA
