Editorial Review

From the Author

This collection of crochet patterns I wrote in 2012. They were published as e-books for the Amazon Kindle e-Reader. People without a Kindle asked me often how they could get the patterns. I collected them all together in this pattern book. Learned how to self publish a book and created the cover. This is the first book in a series. After this more will follow: I hope to publish all my patterns in book form. I hope you enjoy these books.

From the Back Cover

This book is filled with crochet patterns for cute and huggable dolls. They are 16 to 19 inches tall (40 to 48 cm). The clear instructions guide you to make each doll yourself. The Huggy Dolls Patterns have been available as individual patterns in eBook format since 2012. Many wonderful Huggy Dolls have been created since. All Huggy Dolls have been brought together for you in this handy collection.

About the Author

The author, Sayjai has been passionate about crochet for over 30 years. She loves making dolls, flowers and clothes. Sayjai grew up in Thailand and lives in the English countryside. Designing crochet patterns is her full-time profession. Sayjai has published over 100 crochet patterns, mostly for making dolls.
