Thinking Arabic Translation: A Course in Translation Method: Arabic to English (Thinking Translation) By James Dickins, Sandor Hervey, Ian Higgins

Thinking Arabic Translation is a comprehensive and practical 24-week course in translation method. Adapted from the successful French-based Thinking Translation (Routledge, 1992) it has been successfully piloted at Durham University.

Clear explanations, discussion, examples and exercises enable students to acquire the skills necessary for tackling a broad range of translation problems. Examples are drawn from a variety of sources, including journalism and politics, legal and technical texts, and literary and consumer-orientated texts.

A Tutors' Handbook containing invaluable guidance on using the course is available for free download at <http://www.routledge.com/cw/thinkingtranslation/>
