Dirty Talk: Diary of a Phone Sex "Mistress" By Gary Anthony, Rocky Bennett

A revealing look at phone sex by a "mistress of fantasy" responsible for a lot of heavy breathing. With claims of more than half a million calls each day, professional telephone sex is a billion-dollar business in the United States, becoming even more popular in an age of sexually transmitted diseases. Phone sex calls may be expensive, but they are secret, fulfilling turn-ons to many men and even a few women. This book offers a fascinating, no-holds-barred insider's look at the steamy and mysterious world of phone sex fantasy and the clients who keep coming back for more. Gary Anthony joined the business because he needed work, but he also hoped to hone his acting skills on duty, on the phone, he was every man's, and a few women's, fantasy, playing everything from a dominatrix to a she-male to a wide-eyed young male lover. His anonymous callers could be lonely truck drivers, frustrated business men, the sexually ambivalent, or those who just needed to hear his friendly voice of acceptance. "Dirty Talk" is more than just a look at the world of phone sex. This unique, non-judgemental, tell-all book is part autobiography, part industry expose. Anthony digs deep beneath the surface of our desires and reveals the truth about the phone sex actresses who leave male callers physically spent and sexually satisfied. During his years as a phone sex actor, Anthony kept a detailed diary of his conversations and encounters in this alternate world of sexual expression. Reprinted here are many of those titillating conversations featuring every possible scenario from straight sex, transsexual and gay encounters to kinky scenes, fetishes, and the downright bizarre!
