Editorial Review

From the Author

I wrote this short while I was in the middle of editing a trilogy of adventure novels, with the immediate intention of providing it without charge. I wanted to give strangers a way to sample my writing, while risking nothing but the time it takes to read a few pages. I hope you enjoy it, and will try out my other works as they come available.

Thank you,
Chris M. Hibbard

About the Author

Chris M. Hibbard was born in the suburbs of New Jersey, the second of three brothers. His family soon moved to Alaska, where he grew up scrambling over the mountains and beaches of a remote village wedged between thickly wooded peaks and deep fjords. His childhood shaped in him an early love for family and the outdoors, and inspired such hobbies as wildlife photography, grafting fruit trees, and horticulture.

His first novel began as a collection of stories he invented to entertain his children. He, his wife and four children make their home in the Piney Woods of South Texas.
